Oratorical Event Plans Announced

"Youth Looks at Authority" is the topic for this year's oratorical contest sponsored by Niagara Council 247, Knights of Columbus, to be held on Feb. 9 at the K of C home in Third Street.

The competition, which could lead to valuable scholarships for the state winners, is open to all Catholic high school seniors, boys and girls, in the area. It is open to those who will graduate either in mid year or next June.

'60 Minutes' Explores Situation in Mideast Night Slated The Street School is

BEST BET - The 60 Minutes team of Harry split up last week to take a look at what's happening in the current Middle East crisis. Wallace flew to Israel to talk to the "man in the street" and get both general attitudes and official statements from Israeli government and military leaders. Reasoner went to Lebanon to report on the passionate mood of the Arabs. Both will speculate on the potentials for war or peace on both sides. 10-11 Ch. 4.

7:30-8:30 (Ch. 4)-Jonathan Harris is perfectly cast as an Irish scalawag on Lancer. His blarney is thick enough to take in a whole countryside, at least for a while. Stefanie Powers plays his daughter, a chip off the old block, who cons Scott into The appointment of Dr. Johelping her father, whom she says is a down-luck farmer. 7:30-8:30 (Ch. 7) - The Mod Squad has a familiar story with a good topical twist. Capt. Greer and the two officers, are assigned to transport an aging mafia chief from prison to a meeting with the governor. All three are in attendance because he is expected to tell some tall tales and the underworld has marked him for death. Instead of the usual car or train, the group takes a chartered airliner and, sure enough, a gunman takes over the plane.
