

Braves Overwhelm Wallens Red Sox

Eddie Home Builders Braves broke their first place tie with the Wallens Red Sox in the Midtown Little League (Zone 4) majors Tuesday night by whipping the Red Sox 11-3 at Gill Creek.

Mitch Adamshick pitched and batted the Braves to the victory. He scattered six hits and collected a homer, triple and single at the plate.

Jeff Homick also homered for the Braves while Ed May had a solo homer for the Red Sox. Jim Grochala sparked defensively at shortstop for the winners.

Ernie B's Win
Ernie B's Giants moved a half-game ahead of the San-donato Senators in the Hyde Park (Zone 3) majors Tuesday night by routing the last-place Pine Sign Bisons 18-3 at Hyde Park Stadium.

Bill Griffith had five straight hits for the Giants. He homered on the game's first pitch. Frank Colucci added four hits in the Giants' 21-hit total.

Cards Blank Braves
Andy Syruws twirled a three-hit shutout as the LaSalle Lions Club Cardinals held second place in the LaSalle (Zone 6) majors with a 2-0 romp over the Castle Garden Motel Braves Tuesday night at La-Salle Stadium. Billy Oliverio and Dennis Coffey each had three hits for the Cards.
